PINNACLE

Dear Icky-
Hi! I'm so glad we got to be such good friends last summer and have fun this year! I have to see you at the pool this summer a lot. I'll come see you at work too. Don't forget, you have to work hard and be a sweet gal after all, you don't do that anymore! Good luck to you always!

Love,
Chris
(Icky)

Good luck to you too, Icky, and I hope that the very best of luck comes your way. Have much fun. One never can have too much fun. Keep your pecker up, Pat

Love, Pat

Sure I can say much because this has got to be a swell summer. Good luck to you too, Icky, and I hope that the very best of luck comes your way. Have much fun. One never can have too much fun. Keep your pecker up, Pat

Love, Pat

Sue Eckert

Sue,
You're really a good kid, even though you wouldn't tell me when the Pinnacles were supposed to come. Hope you get 'em.
George Arena '63

Sue -
We've known each other for a long time. We haven't always been good friends but we are now. I hope we always will be for I am proud to say "Sue Eckert is my friend."
Good Luck

DEDICATION

A sponsor for Masque and Gavel, a teacher of English Composition, and a believer in the truth of Epictetus' quotation: "If you wish to be a good writer, write," Mrs. Gladys Kronsagen has inspired the thoughts of many students.

As tangible evidence for our appreciation of Mrs. Kronsagen's work with the seniors, we gratefully dedicate the 1960 Pinnacle to her.

FOREWORD

hey walked their alabaster ways up Parthenon. Their glory reaches from Aegean shores to all our lives, lends light of wild desire to climb the vaulted sky, to magnify Olympic transparency of freedom's dome.

Echoing in our ports, the horn of Triton is heard by us who wade the Attic streams and comb for driftwood in our odyssey.
We banquet with Persophene on seed of pomegranate, wear the lion skin.
In ivy halls the voice of Hellenes is loud;
Hephaetian anvils ring through modern Tempe.

Here Pan is still preceptor; Dionysus is Broadway's saint. We ride the silken dolphin, search for Colchis for the Golden Fleece,
still stand on tip-toe reaching for Parnasus.
How good it is the grace of Nausicaa is with us yet and treasure Island Greece.

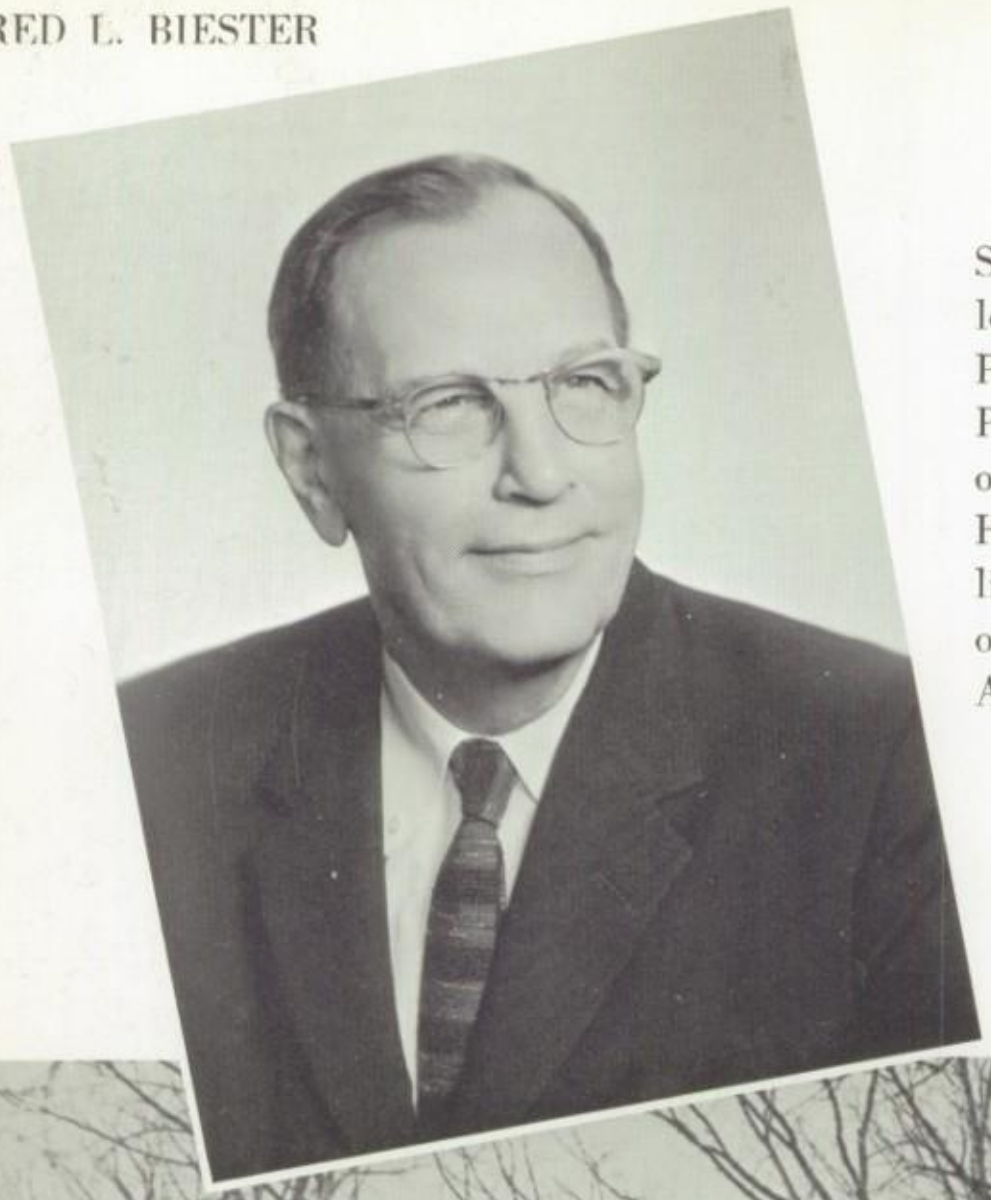
FRED L. BIESTER



Superintendent of Glenbard Township High School. Honorary Doctor Degrees—Beloit College and North Central College—Member of President Eisenhower's National Committee on Physical Fitness of American Youth—Member of Board of Directors and Treasurer of Illinois High School Association—Past President of Illinois Educational Association—Past President of National Federation of Illinois High School Association.

GYMNASIUM

Having a sincere interest in every Glenbard activity, Mr. David H. Miller was chosen to further the outstanding tradition of Glenbard West as principal. Besides carrying on the many duties connected with this position, he also finds time to serve on the Glen Ellyn Youth Board and on the Glen Ellyn Plan Commission, to be a Director of the Rotary Club, and to be Chairman of the Glen Ellyn A.A.A. swimming team. Known and admired, Mr. Miller is an integral part of "the Castle on the Hill."

SENIORS

60

Bob Early, Denny Hansen, Pat Felker

"The strongest principle of growth lies in human choice," asserted George Eliot. Growth and choice, what wonderful words! Throughout the high school careers of the 1960 seniors, their growth and choice have been skillfully guided by Glenbard's gloved hands in the form of teachers and friends. The year 1960, however, changes everything. The wide-eyed freshman of 1956 has grown up and has been temporarily afflicted with "senioritis." Now, at graduation time, these same people are turning the keys to the doors of their individual lives. Each shall make his choice and shall grow to become the useful citizen for which Glenbard helped to prepare him.

Advising the senior class this year was Mrs. Kronsagen. Officers for the senior class were Denny Hansen, President; Bob Early, Vice-president; and Pat Felker, Secretary.

THE HAPPY JOURNEY

This year the junior class presented an evening of three one-act plays called "Two Plus One." Fifty juniors took parts in the plays directed by student directors, seniors Gina Selman, Mavis Madsen, and Jim Wright; and Juniors, Linda Fritch, Bonnie Everhart, and Lynne Roberson. Called "Two Plus One" because two of the plays were written by Thornton Wilder and one by William Shakespeare, the plays were tied together by stage manager, Bob Mecklenburg. Mr. Paul J. Yaeger produced and directed the plays.

THE CURIOUS

PLAY

SAVAGE

Held for the first time in history on two nights, Friday, November 13 and Saturday, November 14, the Glenbard senior class presented "The Curious Savage" by John Patrick. Friday the thirteenth and its successor, proved to be no jinx to the actors. The players put on one of the finest plays in Glenbard's history, attested many of the older teachers. "And if I laugh at any mortal thing, 'Tis that I may not weep" was very fitting in the opinion of the audiences. Mr. Paul Yaeger, director, with the aid of Lynn Sorci and Dorothy Wildish, student directors, can be congratulated, as can be the cast, for their memorable presentation.

BAND COUNCIL

BA

Beginning with marching practice in late August, the Glenbard band played its way through another busy season. Despite occasional adverse weather conditions, the band played at all home football games. Doffing their mud-caked shoes for the concert stage, the band members performed with the choir at the Christmas concert and gave their own winter concert early in March. Individual bandsmen earned recognition by participating in the All-State Music Festival and the West Suburban Music Festival, as vell as competing in the dis-rict and state solo and ensem-le contests.

Leading the band council his year were Paul Barthel-my, President; Betsy Wendt, Vice-President; Betsy Scanlon, Secretary; and Jack Bils, Treasurer. Council members ncluded Mike Abraham and Dave Murphy, senior repre-entatives; Harriet Murphy, unior representative; Nancy Bernisek, sophomore repre-entative; and Al Stentz, Drum Major. Advising the band ouncil was Mr. George Wall, irector.

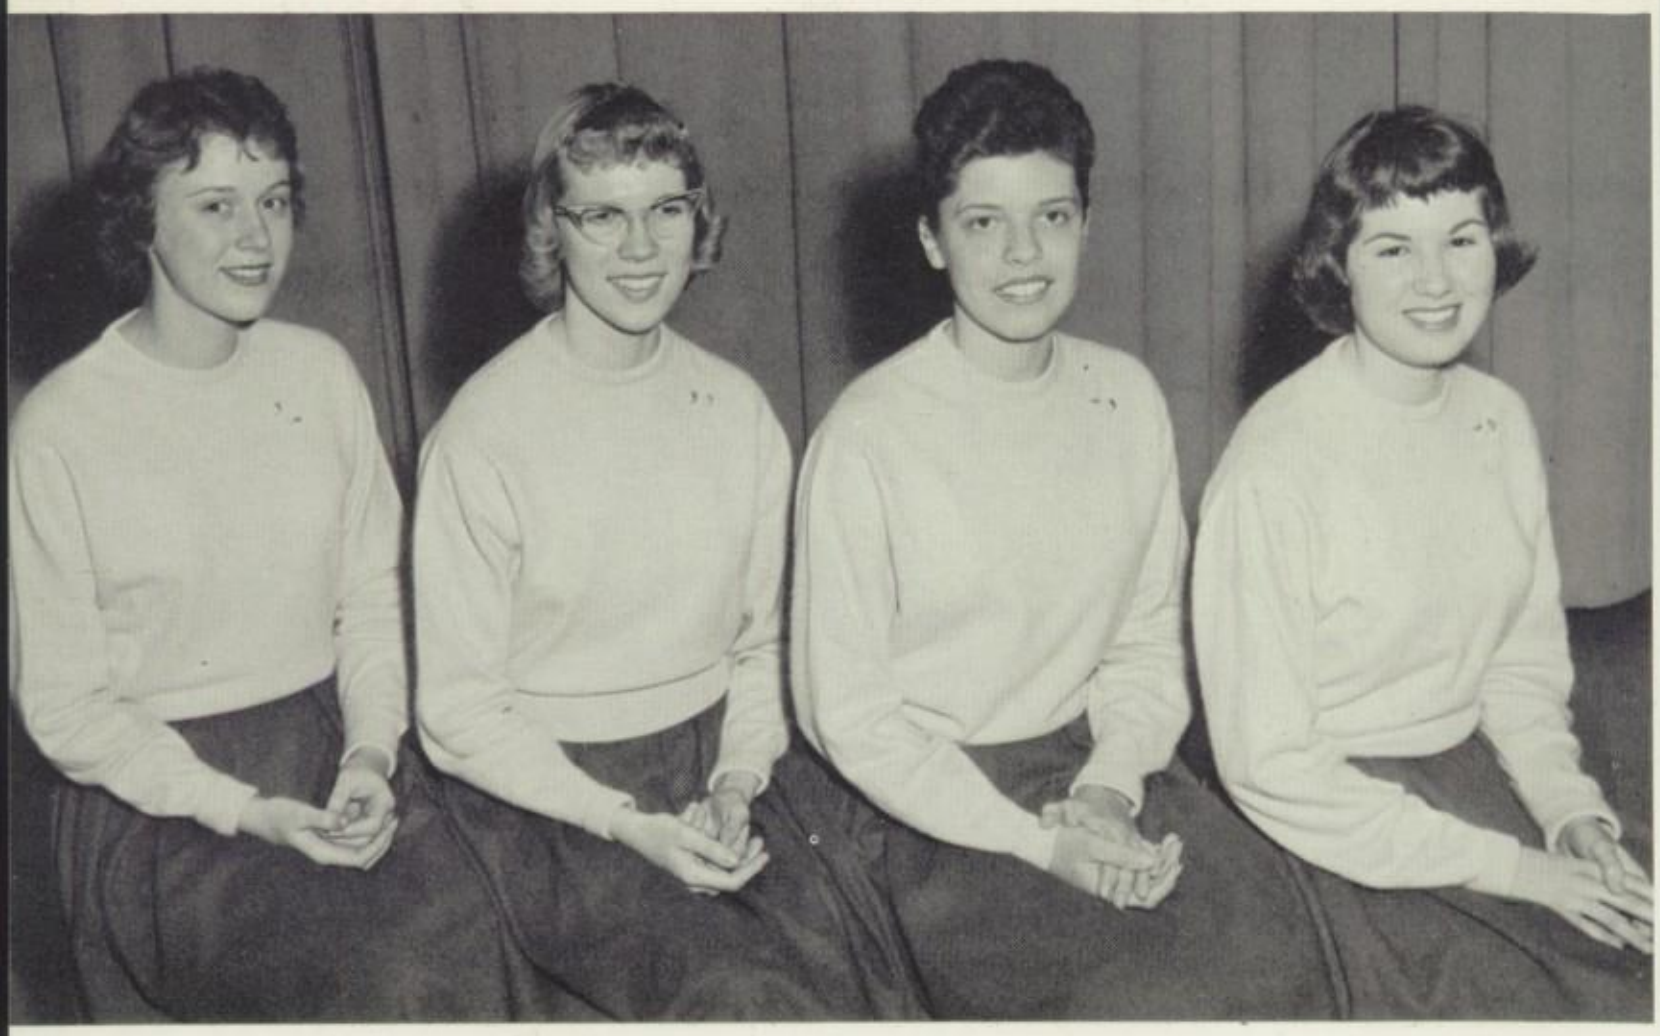
L'ALLIANCE FRANCAISE



S. Kania, S. Hardine, K. Purnall, S. Howard.

The function of L'Alliance Francaise is to bring together students who enjoy the French language, giving them an opportunity to make use of their skills and to further acquaint them with the culture of the French-speaking countries. At the monthly meetings. guest speakers, movies, and slides were presented. In addition, a float depicting early French explorers on the Mississippi River was entered in the Homecoming Parade. Miss Snow was the advisor.

BOAT CLUB

CAMERA CLUB

Camera Club is an organization dedicated to the advancement of photography at Glenbard. Various photographic techniques were discussed at the meetings which were held once a month. In addition, photographic sessions were held plus an annual field trip.

The only qualification for membership is a sincere interest in photography.

The 1959-60 officers were President, Mike Daleiden; Vice-president, Jim Peterson; Secretary-treasurer, Carol Johnson; and club advisor, Mr. Diekelman.

CAMPUS COUNCIL

STUDENT COURT: L. Smith, D. Stineback, R. Wells, A. Pierce, B. Eckert, T. Hollinger, R. Cunningham, Nan Shorey.

To maintain and improve the appearance and condition of our campus, school building, and other school property is the purpose of Campus Council, a two year old council consisting of 12 seniors and 10 juniors.

This past year Campus Council has enforced its rules pertaining to the school, campus, and neighboring residential areas, organized a monitoring system before school and during all four lunch periods in the cafeteria and elsewhere, opened Hall 412 for study at 7:45 every morning, made fire exit signs for all the rooms, and helped clean up after home football games. This spring, Campus Council held a Clean-up Day in an effort to make the campus look more beautiful.

In addition to the Council, a Student Court, composed of officers and monitor heads, was set up to judge violations of council rules and to give penalties for these offenses. Officers were Al Pierce, President; Randy Wells, Vice-president; Linda Smith, Secretary; and Dave Stineback, Treasurer. Mr. Dutch was the advisor.

CHESS CLUB

The Glenbard Chess Club held home and road dual meets with several other high schools this year. In addition, the club was an active participant in the Suburban Chess Entente, an organization composed of Chess clubs from 14 suburban high schools.

The '59-'60 officers were Russ Wallace, President; Jim Benfield, Vice-president; Seth Hayes, Secretary; Ron Severson, Treasurer; and Paul Shrider, Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Chenoweth served his first year as the club advisor.

CURRENT HISTORY

The two-fold purpose of Current History Club is to give the student an opportunity to understand other countries of the world and their problems, and to study and discuss recent development.

The club meets once a month to achieve these purposes. At one of the meetings, the club heard a tape recording on Communist brainwashing of American GI's in the Korean conflict. This was followed by a discussion of all aspects of this controversial subject.

Conducting the meetings this year were Gerry Wittkamper, President; Bonnie Baker, Secretary; and Mary Baumgart, Treasurer. Miss Diers was the advisor.

DEBATE SQUAD

Debating the proposition: "Resolved that the federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions," Glenbard's debate squad, coached by Miss Sara Anne Robertson, completed its second year with a fine record.

The time of the debaters was divided among gathering and organizing material, presenting it clearly and logically at their meetings, held each Tuesday afternoon at 3:29, and traveling to various schools to match wits with other debaters.

ELECTRONICS

F. T. A.

Devoted to education, the Future Teachers of America club has two popular and necessary programs this year, the tutoring and teacher-substitution services. This year's F.T.A. meetings have included talks by guest speakers, a movie, and a panel of Glenbard teachers. Throughout the year, members have attended workshops and meetings on county and regional levels, including the state convention.

This year the club was led by advisor, Miss Eleanor M. Dowling; President, Cheri Wassmundt; Vice-president, Carol Widmer; and Secretary-treasurer, Karen Hein.

GIRL SCOUTS

Completing their second year as a service organization at Glenbard, the Senior Girl Scouts is a club that has neither dues nor membership fees. The only requirement for membership is that a girl be active in some form of Girl Scouting.

One of the main projects this year was taking over the management of the Lost and Found Department at Glenbard.

Leading the club this year were Barb Canfield, President; Peggy Williamson, Secretary; and Margie Kornhauser, Program Chairman.

Junior Red Cross, a very active service club at Glenbard, is a high school branch of the American Red Cross. Its purpose is simply expressed by its motto "We Serve."

This year Junior Red Cross served others by providing Christmas stockings, candy favors, Easter baskets, and games for needy children. J.R.C. aided our community by giving baskets of food to many needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas time. Being of service to our country, J.R.C. made articles of clothing and toys which were placed in the Red Cross disaster closet. As J.R.C. helped others, it served Glenbard by establishing a reputation of good will and generosity.

Students who worked in J.R.C. developed a sense of responsibility, cooperation, and leadership. They furthered better human relations throughout the world by expressing their sympathy and friendliness and by sending gift boxes and clothing overseas.

J.R.C. under the guidance of Miss Bomgardner and the Red Cross office in Chicago, was led this year by Sharon Schoff, President; Karen Westrom, Vice-president; Pat Coleman, Recording Secretary; Mary Reynolds, Corresponding Secretary; Judy Spencer, Treasurer; Nancy Poole, Project Chairman; Mary Duffey, Assistant Project Chairman; Marge Gliessman, Ways and Means Chairman; and Priss Hurlburt, Art Chairman.

KITS & SKITS

Kits and Skits began the year by accepting approximately fifty new members. In addition to our monthly meetings, many members have found time to present programs to various old people's homes. The years biggest project was a book sale in which old books obtained by Kits and Skits members were sold to the student body.

The organization was guided this year by President, Lee Golterman; Vice-President, Nancy Johnston; Secretary-Treasurer, Lynne Steadke; Sergeant-at-Arms, Jim Wright; Program Chairman, Carol Bedal; Junior Program Chairman, Jane Venskus. The club was advised by Miss Homrighous and Mrs. McNickols.

PAN AMERICAN LEAGUE

The main function of Pan American League is to better the acquaintance between the Spanish students of Glenbard and the Spanish-speaking countries. Members have tried to accomplish this through programs featuring guest speakers, Mr. Jim Patterson and Mr. Stan Yohe, who have visited Mexico, and some very interesting slides. A Christmas party and a fiesta prepared in the best Spanish tradition were two events on the '59-'60 calendar.

Head "senorita" Sara Eddy was assisted by Beth Colley, Vice-president; Beverly Kelly, Secretary-treasurer; Gina Selman, Program Chairman; and Nancy Saloman, Art Chairman. Miss Shuck and Miss Britton served as advisors.

PEP CLUB

Whenever a mass of green
and white you see,
You'll know it's the Pep Club
cheering for victory.
School spirit, good sportsmanship they urge at each game,
As they cheer the "Toppers" to neverending fame.
The barbeque starts the school
year out right;
In the fall there's the float
and parade by torchlight.
Green-White Day they sponsor
each year
As for Glenbard, they urge all you students to cheer!

Row 1: Skip Gedge, Kent Fairfield, Ted Becker. Row 2: Fred Goon, Rick Buol, Pete Mattingly.

SENIOR HI-Y

Devoted to the advancement of the high ideals of clean speech, sportsmanship, scholarship, and living, Senior Hi-Y seeks to provide stimulating and wholesome fellowship, fun and recreation. Membership in Senior Hi-Y is voluntary and includes boys in both junior and senior classes.

As a club of long standing at Glenbard, Senior Hi-Y is active in extra-curricular activities. Highlights of this year's program were the selling of Christmas trees, participation in Illinois Youth and Government, Mother and Son Banquet, Career Night, and Candlelight Service. Complementing these events, Hi-Y enjoyed gym nights, swimming parties, and a variety of speakers and movies.

Under the guidance of Mr. Baer, the '59-'60 club was led by Jim Weissenborn, President; Bill Behrmann, Vice-president; John Moore, Secretary; Jon Hull, Treasurer; Dave Dearlove, Chaplain; and Bob Scaife, Sergeant-at-arms.

Youthful in Manner
Truthful in judgment
Eager for knowledge
Ever dependable
Neatness always
Sincere at all times

With this as their code, members of this year's Y-Teens set out on their quest "to find and give the best." Participation in service projects such as visiting homes, filling stockings, working on Brain Research, collecting stamps and Christmas cards, and working on the prize winning float. filled the year with fun and helpfulness.

TEEN

In September, Y-Teens sponsored a tea for Big and Little Sisters. December brought the Candle light Service, a combined Y-Teens Hi-Y presentation. Again in February the two clubs combined to present the annual Heart Hop, based on the theme "Blue Taboo." In the spring the annual style show was presented. Climaxing the year was the Mother-Daughter Banquet, which was held in May.

Leading the year's activities were Dorothy (D.J.) Wildish, President; Carolyn Widmer, Vice-president; Sue Scott, Secretary; and Beverly Kelly, Treasurer. The advisors were Miss Edythe Sinden and Miss Evelyn Kittlesby.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

"Set up your squares." Another square dance meeting is in progress. Lead by Mr. Greene, the caller, the members reel, wig-wawk, and polka every third Saturday of each month at the Forest Glen School.

The officers that assist setting up squares are Tom Hollinger, President; Mary Hales, Vice-president; Paula Bramson, Treasurer; Merry Macke, Secretary; and Dan Cullen, Refreshment Chairman. Mr. Magor was this year's advisor.

SENIOR CHAIRMEN ON COUNCIL

This year Student Council took Glenbardians "Through the Ages" with Homecoming and to New York, with the Variety Show. Council also acquainted many students with Japan through Licky (Tsutomu Hirayama), Glenbard's foreign exchange student.

It was a year of firsts at Glenbard also. The participation file was introduced and effectively used, the cafeteria bulletin board was installed, and the Leadership Clinic was founded to acquaint future officers with their duties and responsibilities.

Council also expanded its horizons beyond the school itself. Eric Munson was elected Secretary of the Northeast-Northwest District, and Mr. Stanley Yohe was appointed Advisor-at-large. A special committee of Council members compiled a Public Relations report for the Illinois Association of Student Councils.

Al Grindal, President; Dick Chandler, Vice-president; Carolyn Dekan, Secretary; and Phil Budd, Treasurer, led Council this year, advised by Mr. Yohe and Mr. James Patterson.

Returning after a year's leave of absence, Coach Bill Kastrinos proceeded to mold the returning lettermen from last year and the juniors into one of the most potent Glenbard squads in history. The ever-powerful Wheaton Tigers were the first opponents, and they were held to a 13-13 tie by the inspired Hilltoppers. Conference play, however, proved disastrous as six games were lost. The potential was there, but something, maybe luck, lacked. That lucklessness was in evidence during the Homecoming game against Downers. Downers won the game 15-6, but Glenbard lost the muddy ball, three times deep in Downers territory while the opponents got both of their touchdowns on Glenbard mistakes. Likewise, the conference champion Maine team could have been defeated, instead of winning 19-14, if a few breaks had occurred. The final game of the year against Lyons was a well-earned, tremendous victory by Glenbard, 21-7. In this game the potential and courage of Glenbard came through, although Coaches Bill Duchon, an ex-coach from Fenwick, and Warren Wiltsie aided a great deal.

The junior varsity, under Coach Don Porter, completed a good season with a 3-3-1 record. Most of this reserve varsity and the sophomore squad, included with twelve returning lettermen should be a definite conference power next year.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

The frosh-soph football team had a tough year. Starting off with a discouraging 21-19 loss to Wheaton, the baby Bards then went on to take a 26-0 thumping from York. Coaches Given and Nordmeyer, although disappointed by the team's poor showing, continued to strive to improve the team even after the boys suffered a 27-12 defeat at the hands of Arlington, a close 12-7 loss to Hinsdale, and a 14-6 downing by R-B. After a lot of hard work, their efforts were rewarded when they defeated powerful Maine 12-7. Going on to lose their Homecoming to Downers Grove 13-6 and winding up the season by bowing to Lyons 13-0, the boys themselves were never dispirited and Glenbard should be proud of this team that wouldn't give up.

Another first place finish was the accomplishment of the freshman team. Under the first year leadership of Coaches Ron Fraizer and Bill Johnson, they ended the season with a 5 win and 1 loss record to duplicate last year's freshman team. Hard work was the key that opened the door to victories over York, 20-0; Arlington, 12-0; R-B, 36-6; Maine, 26-20; and Downers, 41-13. The only spot on an otherwise perfect record was a 7-6 loss to Hinsdale. Having kept the tradition of being a fine freshman team, the boys now move up the ladder to what we are confident will be the finest sophomore team yet.

For the second year in a row the Glenbard cross country team has finished in second place in the state of Illinois. This is indeed a record to be proud of. Under the fine and able leadership of Coach C. A. R. Johnson, the team finished in second place in the conference with an 8 and 1 record for the season. In the Bloomington Invitational Meet, our team took a third place and then proceeded to finish second in the conference meet and first in the district meet.

During the season, Dave Stineback set five different course records and was ably supported by his teamates, Robin LaFleur, Rick Cunningham, Bob Kopp, Bob Woodruff, Bill Millichap, and Jim Weissenborn. Going on to the state meet, this team finished second only to New Trier.

We cannot speak too highly of this team that performed so splendidly for our school. In coming years, we can only expect just as good teams as was this one. With several returning lettermen and many good sophomore runners, the future teams should be just as good as if not better than this outstanding 1959 cross country team.

Led by the outstanding running of Jim Isaacson, our Bardlet cross country team had a very successful season. Isaacson set four different Frosh-Soph course records. Good performances by Mike Waterman, Larry Rahn, Barry Wheeler, Harry Hitchner, Jim McPherson, and Bob Bigler helped the team to a second place standing with a nine wins and one loss score. With wins over St. Charles, Arlington, Hinsdale, Riverside, Maine, Downers Grove, Lyons and Glenbard East behind them, the team went on to finish in third place in the conference meet to wind up the season.

Coach Johnson was well pleased with the team and expects a great deal of help from them for the varsity.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

After starting off the season with a number of wins, the varsity cagers experienced a mid-season slump, but pulled out of it in a spectacular manner against Hinsdale on green and white day. Thereafter the team swept their remaining games to finish in third place with a record of 10 wins and 4 losses. Denny Hanson and Dick Chandler, two of Glenbard's outstanding players were named to the All-Conference team. Coach Bob Metcalf leading his high-spirited boys into the regional tournament was confident of the team's chances and his enthusiasm was very much justified for the team swept all the opponets before them to become regional champions. The team now goes on to the sectional tournament and with the potential already displayed, we are confident that they will make an equally good showing.

Co-champions of the West Suburban Conference was the title tacked onto our Bardlet basketball team this year. Under the tutilege of Coach Don Porter, the boys went right to work and downed Lyons, 63-47; Downers Grove, 58-33; Maine, 56-29; R-B, 71-53; Hinsdale, 67-48; and Arlington, 59-34. They then took a hard loss from York, the other co-champions, 63-53. Proceeding on, they again beat Downers, 48-38; Maine, 57-43; R-B, 59-37; Arlington, 51-42; and lost to Hinsdale, 42-36 to finish up with a twelve and two record. These boys performed excellently throughout the season and should be a great asset to our varsity next year.

The freshman basketball team, in keeping with the fine records of our other teams, came up with a winning season. Coached by Ray Livingston in his first year at Glenbard, the team made its presence felt immediately by whipping Downers 47-43 and Main 49-21. Losses to Elgin 45-32, and Hinsdale, 67-52, followed, but then the team picked up and defeated Arlington, 42-25; York, 48-47; and St. Francis, 55-44. Lyons went down 44-34 as did Wheaton 38-26; Aurora, 52-31; and St. Procopius, 59-28. A single loss to R-B, 39-30 was the only low spot in the last half of the season. With a 9 and 3 record for the season, the team can look forward to even better things as sophomores.

The Varsity grapplers, despite their apparent poor showing, were one of the most spirited teams at Glenbard. Another of the newer sports, they are still in the process of moulding a top flight team. With a single win over R-B to their credit, the team wound up in seventh place with a 1 and 6 record. Coach Stelmack and the boys worked tirelessly even in the face of adversity and Glenbard is proud of this hard fighting team.

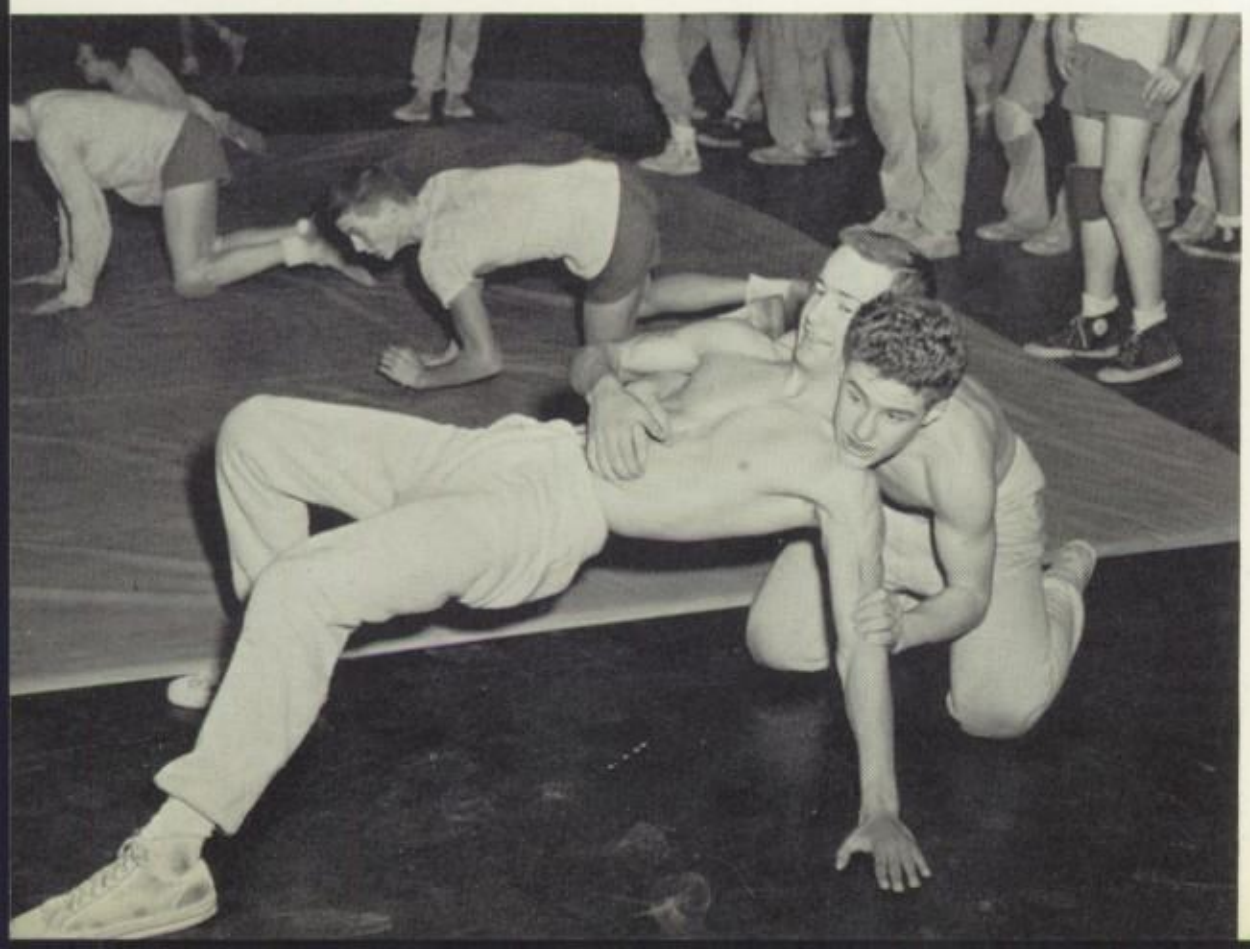
Having better luck than the varsity, the frosh-soph wrestlers, with a lot of slamming and banging, fought their way through the season to end up in third place winning four and loosing three. Coach Lazier has been coach for both wrestling and intramural sports program, nevertheless, he did a good job with the boys. Arlington, Maine, R-B, and York were victims of our powerful squad. Throughout the whole conference, Glen Bremer was defeated only once. The boys gained a lot of experience and began adding new laurels to the sports history of Glenbard.

G. Dekan, J. Seutor.



GYMNASTICS

The young gymnastics team completed their second season of competition with a fairly good record. Handicapped by their lack of experience, the varsity turned in 3 wins and 5 losses. With Jon Hull and John Locke performing on the high bars, Steve Thomton on the parallel bars and Bob Bigler on the trampoline, the varsity defeated Elgin, Lyons, and Maine West.

Fine performances by Don Ost in tumbling, Brian Loveless on the apparatus, and Tom Kruk on the parallel bars, brought the frosh-soph wins over both Maine East and West for a 2 and 6 finish. The boys gained valuable experience and Coach Ettl is sure that, in years to come, gymnastics will add to the sporting laurels of Glenbard.

Class Sports Heads

This year marked the beginning of a completely new and different intramural program. In previous years, the boys who played intramural sports were confined to bowling, wrestling, and basketball under the supervision of teachers. Now, however, the picture is completely changed. A sports head for each one of the four classes has been appointed, and he is in charge of all sports for his class. The program has been broadened to include track, gymnastics, volleyball, badminton, and football plus several other sports. Mr: Lazier, who inaugurated and directed the program this year, has high hopes as to the success of the venture. Next year, the intramurals will be in the hands of and entirely run by the boys themselves with local managers setting up and officiating various events. The main responsibility will fall on the senior class sports head who will coordinate all four classes. This program gives greater opportunity to many boys to participate in some sport, and we heartily wish the new program the best of luck.

Completing a fairly successful season with a 5 and 2 record, our varsity golf team, with wins against Maine, Downers Grove, York, R-B, and Lyons, went on to place seventh in both the district and the conference tournaments. Coach Haas was well pleased with the team that finished in fourth place in the conference and expects an even better team next year.

While our varsity linksters were swinging their way through the season, the frosh-soph team, under Coach Metcalf, was compiling a 1-3-3 record and was trying for second place in the conference meet. Although not as successful as the varsity they showed great potential and should strengthen next year's varsity team considerably.

Led by sprinters Ron Menely and Frank Cavey, and distance runners Dave Stineback, Robin LaFleur, and Bob Kopp, our varsity track team completed another good year. Coached by C.A.R. Johnson and G. Dekan, the team finished in fourth place 34¾ points behind Arlington, Maine, and Lyons. Although weak in field events, our team was able to win most of its meets on the strength of its runners. With many of its leaders as juniors this year, the team is a sure bet to be strong again next year.

FROSH-SOPH TRACK

Varsity, R. Menely

In the process of building a team and gaining the necessary experience, our Bardlet field and track men suffered a series of defeats which finally put them in sixth place. This finish was not due to the boys' lack of spirit or drive, but rather, as coaches Wiltsie and Stevens believe, to a lack of experience in field events. Next year the many returning sophomores will bring with them this needed experience and the team should be a leading contender in the conference.

The varsity nine had a disappointing season this year. Despite their best efforts, they wound up in the cellar with a 2 and 12 record. However, Coach Astroth had several good sophomore players on the team, and they, along with the returning lettermen, should form the nucleus of a strong conference team next season. We expect this team to be in the first division standings and a leading contender for first place.

Despite the handicap of having to give up some of their players to the varsity team, the frosh-soph baseball team did quite well for themselves. With wins over Downers Grove, Lyons, York, Hinsdale, and R-B, the team ended the season with a 5 and 2 record. The hard hitting and fielding of the team were chiefly responsible for the team's high standings. Coach Burns, who is in his second year of coaching this particular group of boys, feels confident that they will provide the needed depth and power to next year's varsity team.

R. Lane, D. Irving.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

In their first year of competition at the "Hill," the boys of this year's freshman baseball team ran up an excellent string of wins. With LaGrange and Joliet the lone villians this year, Coach Kamm is justly proud of the team that lost only two games throughout the entire season. The prospects of our frosh-soph team this year are very bright as a result of the freshman team performance last season.

Under the leadership of Mr. Magor, our varsity team completed a good season with a fifth place finish. By defeating R-B, Maine, and Downers Grove, they ended the season with a 3 and 4 record. Representing Glenbard, as well as himself, Doug Walter placed second in the state in individual match game competition for the second consecutive year. With added experience and polish, the team should be one of the conference powers next year.

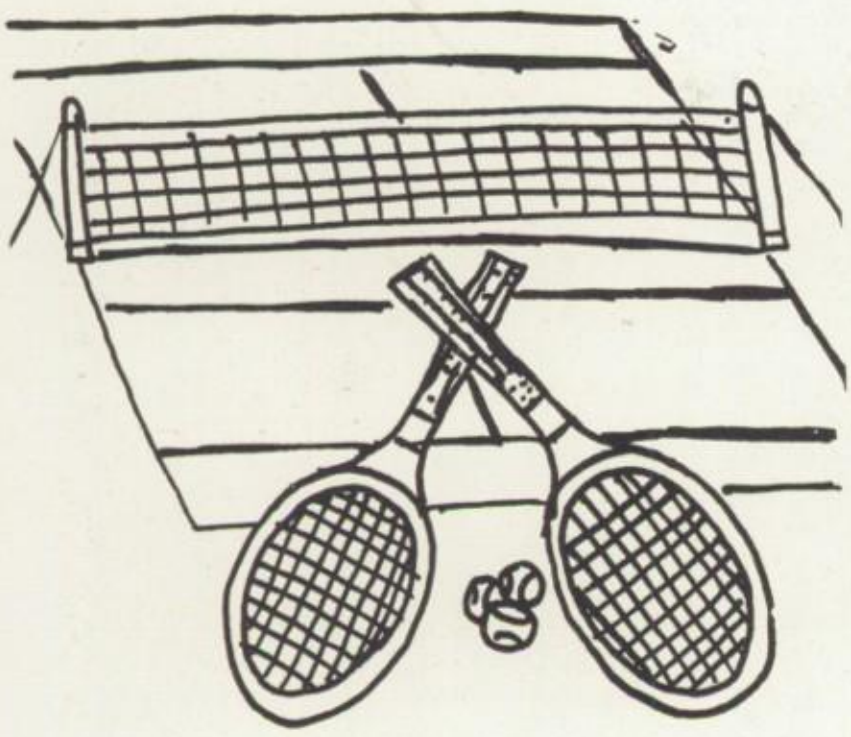
FROSH-SOPH TENNIS



Enduring a tough season, our frosh-soph tennis team recorded a lone win over R-B while losing the rest of their games. Winding up play in seventh place, Coach Thompson said that this was by no means indicative of the caliber of play. The boys fought hard all the way and, with their experience, should be a valuable asset to the varsity team next year.

1960

Although the football game with Downers Grove was lost, Glenbard's 1960 Homecoming was one of the finest, according to returning grads. Starting Friday with a rousing pep rally in the auditorium, Homecoming progressed happily and smoothly through the twisting torchlight parade, the blazing bonfire, and the shoulder-wrenching snake dance. Saturday morning the gala parade passed through Lombard and Lombard as one of the stimulators for the afternoon game. Before the game tension ran high, and at the close of it, everyone was limp. Downers won 15-6, but not without a few breaks and a Glenbard struggle. The traditional Homecoming dance with its bright decorations and radiant Queen and court ended that wonderful weekend.

HOMECOMING COURT

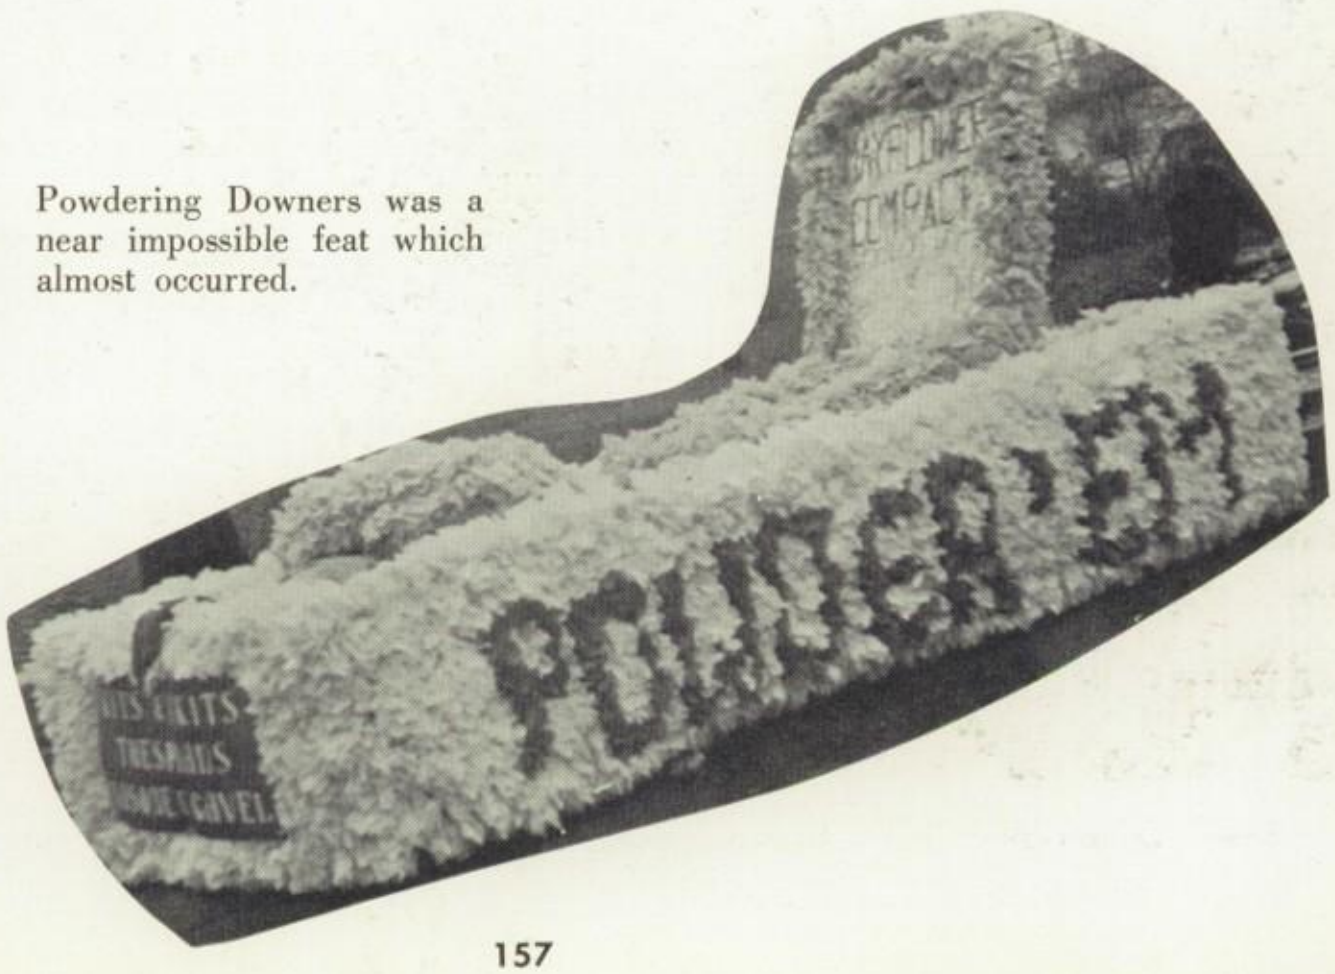
Raising the flag over Downers was almost successful.

Powdering Downers was a near impossible feat which almost occurred.



HEART HOP

Mary Reed and escort Sy Nelson.

Queen Peggy Barstow and escort Bob Nuti.

Deep in the African jungle, Glenbardians danced to the music of the Melody Kings at the annual Heart Hop called "Blue Taboo," sponsored by Hi-Y and Y-Teens. Monkeys hanging from trees, music floating over the dance floor from a tropical island, and blue lights helped to create this exotic paradise.

Entertainment was provided by junior Pat Bunker, singing; a skit by seniors Lynne Sorci and Dave Winge; and juniors Diane Bedal, Sherry Johnson, Linda Schott, and Patti Skinner danced to "House of Bamboo."

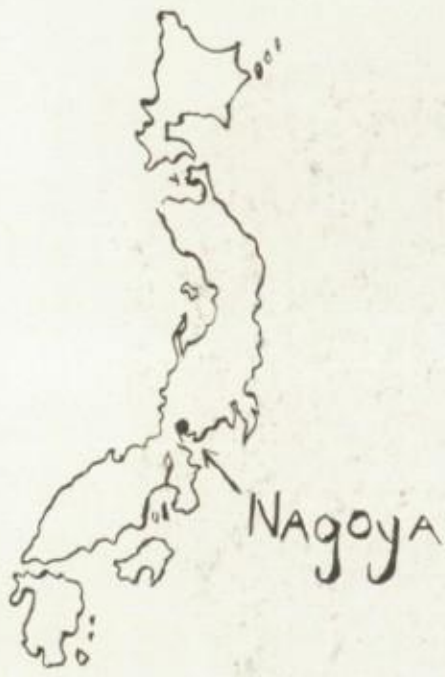
FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT



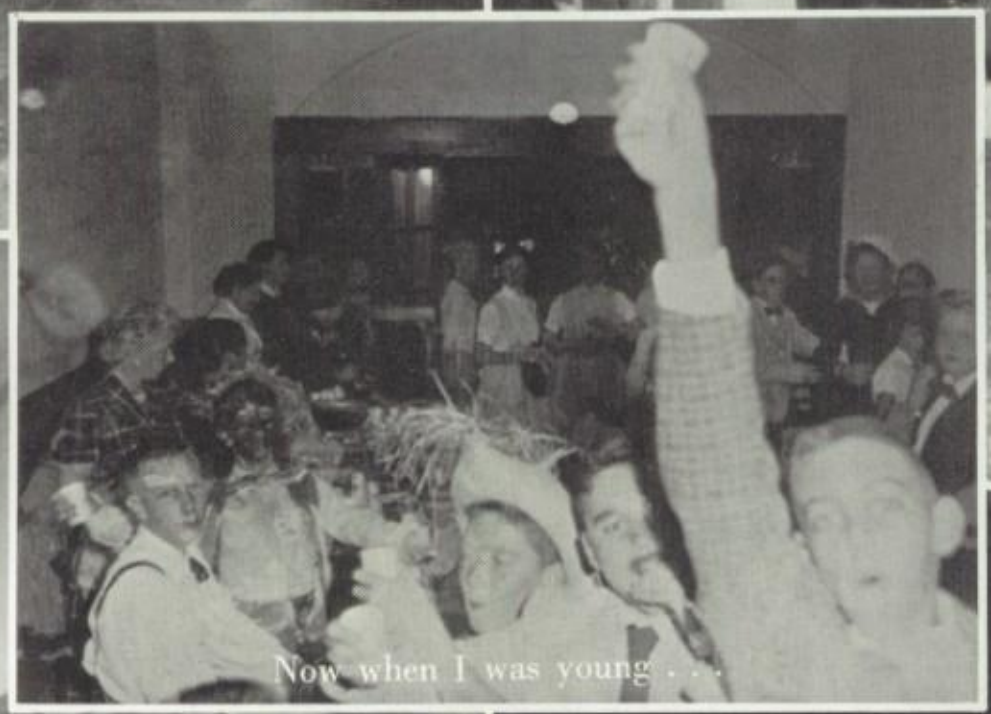
Tsutomu "Licky" Hirayama

Coming from Nagoya, Japan, our foreign exchange student, Tsutomu "Licky" Hirayama had his first view of the United States when he landed in Seattle, Washington, on September 7, 1959. The next day he was headed for Glen Ellyn, where he was to live with Mr. and Mrs. Martin D. Bates during the 1959-1960 school year.

One of Licky's first observations upon coming to "the Castle" was that Glenbard is smaller than Asahigoaka High School, the school which he attended in Japan. He was also surprised and disappointed to learn that we do not include soccer in our sports activities. Football is practically unheard of in Japan, but baseball and basketball are popular. He is undecided as to whether he wants to be a mathematics professor or a statesman. Since his arrival at Glenbard, he has made many friends and has enthusiastically joined in our activities, such as wrestling. Before going home to Nagoya, "Licky" will have the opportunity to tour the United States.

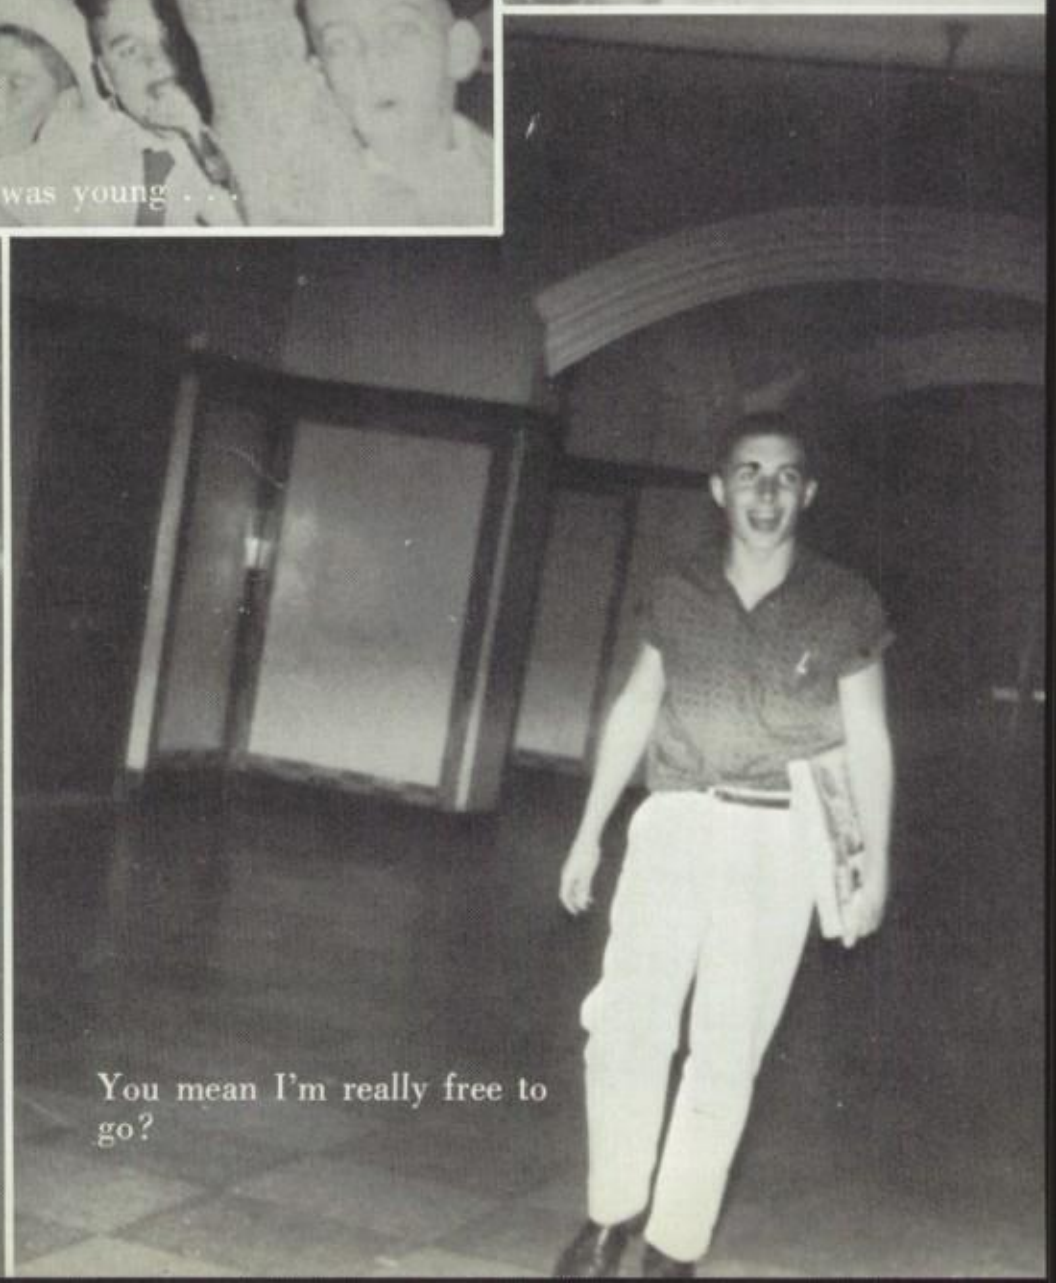
Isn't the camera turned the wrong way?

Wonder if she washed her hands?



Now when I was young . . .

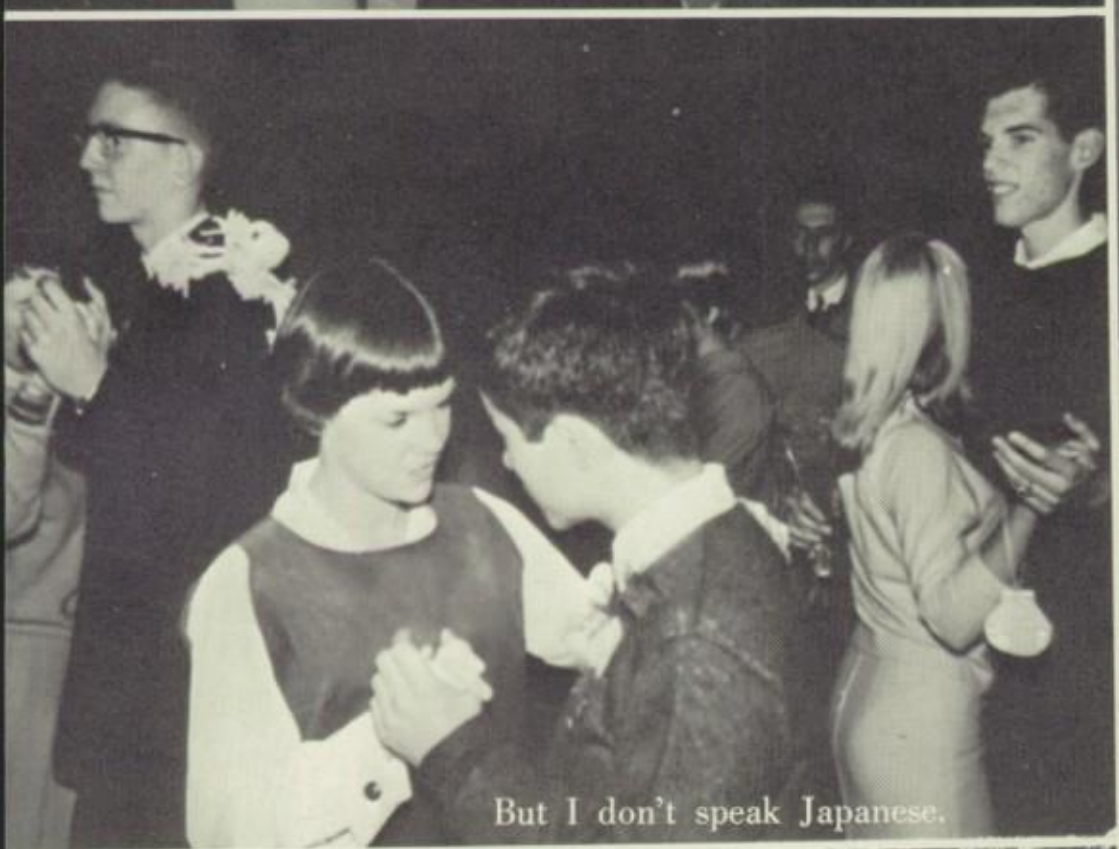
Who left the light on?



You mean I'm really free to go?

I know your nervous, but . . .

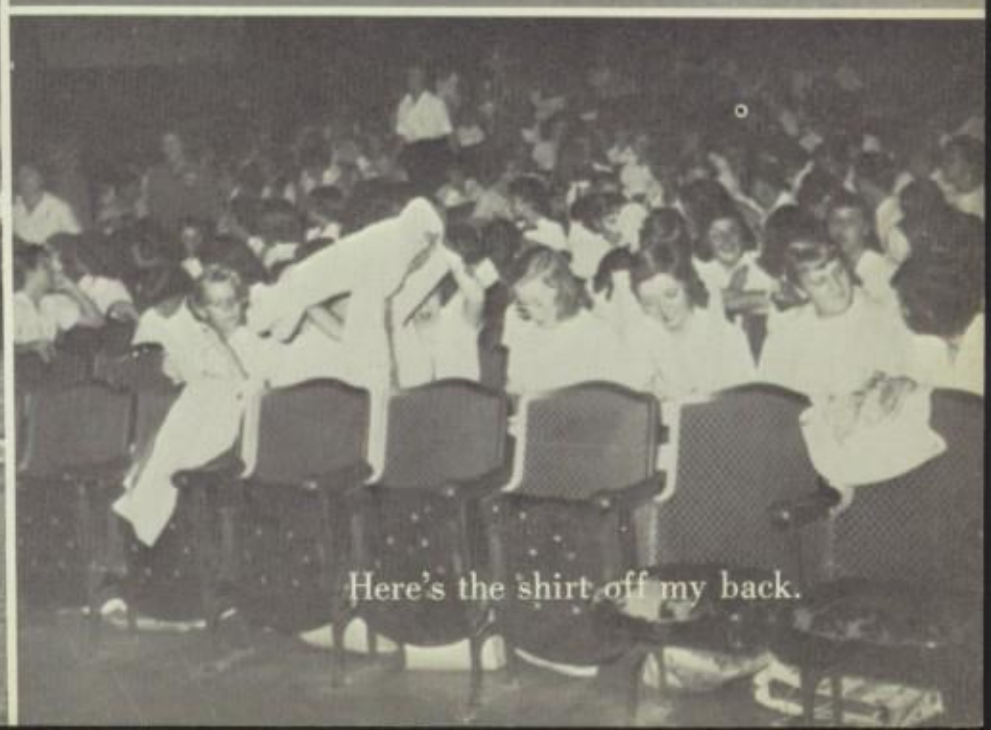
Remember Jack Paar



But I don't speak Japanese.

'Course I go to the basketball games

Of course we walk to school.



Here's the shirt off my back.

Only the educated are free.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Barry Young, Tim Ayers. Not pictured: Judy Roughton.

Leadership, enthusiasm, and responsibility have been vividly portrayed by the class of 1961. The many offices held by juniors in organizations and memberships in Kits and Skits, Thespians, Masque and Gavel, and Quill and Scroll indicate good leadership abilities. Winning the trophy for the best class participation during Green-and-White Day, as well as the successful Junior Play, display the class' enthusiasm. In preparation to ascend the golden staircase to the "senior" realm, the junior class has shown the responsibility all good upperclassmen should possess. Miss O'Hara advised the juniors this year. The officers were President Tim Ayers, Vice-president Barry Young, and Secretary Judy Roughton.

Bob Johnson, Dale Coleman, Jim Unrath.

In their second year at Glenbard the class of '62 became active in many of the "Castle's" activities such as, Student Council, the PINNACLE Staff, and the GLEN BARD. They also held offices in various clubs and represented Glenbard in athletics. Having already finished two years on the hill, they are amazed at how fast the time has flown by; and are looking forward to their last two years at Glenbard. The advisor for the sophomore class was Miss Scott. Sophomore class officers were Jim Unrath, President; Bob Johnson, Vice-president; and Dale Coleman, Secretary.

HIGH SCHOOL

Something like five years GLENBARD EAST has passed since the first dream of a Glenbard East began to take form. A resurvey of possible high school enrollments made it clear that the Glenbard District 87 should have two high schools. Necessary plans, elections, and decisions were made and Glenbard East is now a reality.

Glenbard West began with only 283 students. Glenbard East opened with 520 students. You and your faculty have a great opportunity to begin building a new Glenbard, great in spirit and reputation. It is a pleasure for me to thank you for a great year of fine beginnings and co-operation. It is an equal pleasure to renew my challenge to you, to make Glenbard East one of the great and proud suburban high schools. Great and proud because of its ideals, its spirit and its academic achievement.

WILLIAM E. RIDER
PRINCIPAL, GLENBARD EAST

Although he is the first principal of the new Glenbard East, Mr. William Rider is not new at such responsible positions. Transferring from West where he was Dean of Students, he has set up the school standards in such a way as to benefit the future.

A good education consists in giving to the body and to the soul all the beauty and all the perfection of which they are capable.

Mr. Leo Hutt, even though he switched from teacher to boys' counsellor in one year, has undertaken his new job with great enthusiasm, industry, and ability. As a counsellor, Mr. Hutt has felt much closer to the student body and retained his philosophy—be optimistic and never stop working.

Advice is a sacred thing.

Row 1: C. Harrison, K. Leonard, J. Fleege, D. Smith. Row 2: A. Carroll, J. Beau, M. Olsen. Row 3: G. LaFluer, S. Worshani, L. Heirndt, S. Sampson.

The class of 1962 at Glenbard East has the responsibility of forming the traditions and standards that will be maintained by the classes to follow them. Already these sophs have shown initiative and spirit which are the requirements of leadership. No longer freshmen, these Glenbardians have proven they have the ability to lead a school without the upperclassmen to guide them. In the future this class will be remembered as the first ones to graduate from Glenbard East.

HI-Y

With a club platform of "Clean Speech, Clean Sportsmanship, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living," you expect more from Hi-Y members and you get it. Dedicated to service and the development of leadership and Christian character, Hi-Y members planned programs that met their interests and their purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

All day canoe trips and a joint meeting with Y-Teens highlighted the year for Hi-Y.

The officers for this year were President, Charles Crissey; Vice-president, Tom Midland; Secretary, Ted Kessler; Treasurer, Clark Moore; and Chaplin, Don Swiatek. Mr. Hartman was the advisor.

LOS AFFICIONADOS

The main function of "Los Afficionados" is to promote a better interest in Spanish and the Spanish speaking countries. Membership is open to any student enrolled in the language, and meetings are held twice a month.

Starting the school year with routine meetings for organization, the club has developed into an interesting educational association. One of the highlights of the year was a trip into Chicago to see a Spanish movie at the Senate Theater, followed by sampling native food in a Spanish restaurant. Governing the club were: Arlene Cutshall, President; Pat Massey, Vice-president; Merrilyn Olsen, Secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Donald Patterson, Advisor.

L'ALLIANCE FRANCAIS

The French Club or L'Alliance of Glenbard East was formed in December with the help of our sponsor Mrs. Ferguson. The club's main objective is to acquaint the members with the history, people, and customs of France.

At one meeting Mademoiselle De Lagoutte spoke and showed pictures of Paris, and twenty-five initiates dressed as French students, provided entertainment.

The officers for the year were Dave Ek, President; Lynne Ullman, Vice-president; Kathy Harkins, Secretary; and Ginny Soule, Treasurer.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

COUNCIL, Row 1: C. Biehl, L. Crissey, C. Velde, J. Kostal, J. Goetz, J. Long. Row 2: S. Lotz, J. Jordan, N. Nelson, P. Munsterman, P. Wall, J. Hildenbrand, L. Silberhorn.

"To promote better sportsmanship" is the purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association. The members of G.A.A. were limited this year to participate in such sports as volleyball, basketball, bowling, and archery due to the incompletion of the gym.

"Winter Wonderland," the G.A.A. dance, was one of the many highlights of the year. Entering a float for the first time in the Homecoming Parade, having the initiation, and ending the year with a banquet were also high points. The V.I.P., G.A.A.'s major fund raising project proved to be a huge success.

Officers of G.A.A. this year were Judy Kostal, President; Char Velde, Vice-president; Linda Crissey, Secretary; and Judy Goetz, Treasurer. Miss Grebner was the advisor.

SPORTSHEADS. Row 1: K. Leonard, N. Nelson, S. Pettengell. Row 2: P. Shogren, J. Stockwell, T. Tolg.

MATH CLUB

The Glenbard East Math Club is an organization dedicated to all phases of mathematics. The informal meetings cover many subjects from gambling to nomography. At several of the meetings leaders in the varied fields of math conducted interesting lectures.

RADIO CLUB

Row 1: N. Carlson, Su Eichorst, J. Haley. Row 2: C. Erlandson, C. Kaiser, K. Hitzeman.

"We believe in service for others, our country, our community, and our school" is part of the J.R.C. creed. Certainly "service" has been the key word at J.R.C. this past year. Christmas stockings, Easter baskets, tray favors, nut cups, joke books and stuffed animals were all made by J.R.C. members. They also participated in making and selling pop corn, candy canes, Christmas cookies, fudge, and bakery goods. Mrs. Davis served as advisor.

Members have gained experience in leadership, developed a sense of responsibility, and enjoyed co-operating with many different kinds of people.

This year's officers were Kathie Hitzeman, President; Carol Erlandson, Vice-president; Susan Eichorst, Secretary; Nancy Carlson, Treasurer; Jill Haley, Project Chairman; Carol Kaiser, Ways and Means Chairman; and Lynn Palmer, Art Chairman.

The council this year consisted of Cyndy Birr, President; Sue Eckert, Vice-president; Pat Davidson, Secretary; Glenna Jones, Treasurer; Pam Newton, Sophomore Class Head; Karen Fraunfelder, Freshmen Class Head.

Dear Sue,
This year
sure has been a riot
in all of our council
meetings, hasn't it?
I hope we can do the same next year.
have gobs of fun this summer
I hope I'll see you sometime.
The very best of luck to you always. Sue in all the years to come. And Sue please keep up the good work.
Love,
Pat

Although Pep Club did not come into Glenbard East until well into the school year, it was greeted enthusiastically by the student body. This curtailed its activity seriously.

Because there were only two classes at the school, not much spirit was expected, but the teams and Pep Club Council were pleasantly surprised by the wonderful attendance at the games.

The sponsor was Miss Way.

PEP CLUB

Y-TEENS

With three goals in mind, fun, fellowship, and service, Y-Teens of Glenbard East set forth anticipating a year packed with fun. Opening with a Big and Little Sister Bar-B-Q, the service organization held initiation ceremonies including Candlelight Services, and a Christmas party.

The Y-Teens' projects consisted of filling Christmas stockings, collecting old clothes, sending linen to poor people, and giving decorations to veterans. They also aided Glenbard East by decorating the cafeteria at Christmas time.

Officers this year were Sue Sampson, President; Barb Bunker, Vice-president; Marilyn Gibler, Secretary; and Mary Hooper, Treasurer.

Row 1: Mary Hooper, M. Gibler, B. Bunker, S. Sampson.

STUDENT COUNCIL

J. O'Meara, Judy Bilger, D. Orr.

Student Council was one of the first organizations at Glenbard East. Last spring ten sophomore representatives were elected. Four of the representatives were elected officers: Dave Orr, President; Bill Shirer, Vice-president; Judy Bilger, Secretary; and Jerri O'Meara, Treasurer. Six freshman representatives were elected in October.

The Student Council members are divided into three permanent committees: Publicity, organization, and fund-raising. Besides the projects of these committees, the Student Council has done many things as a group. These include handbooks, a homecoming float, and Christmas decorations for Glenbard East's halls.

The advisors were Mr. Sasko and Mr. Diedrick.

FROSH-SOPH CROSS COUNTRY

Row 1: C. Crissy, B. Gehrs, J. Nichols, B. Moore, Mgr. D. Swiatek. Row 2: T. Gorman, D. Comfort, G. LaFleur, Coach Campbell, J. Zitt, C. Daer, C. Lonroth. Row 3: T. Bakos, J. Fisher, B. Brose, G. In their first year of existence, the Frosh-Soph cross country team did themselves proud, running up a record that bespeaks of a fine varsity team to come. Sometimes running as two separate teams, the team's freshmen rang up 1 win and 2 losses while the whole Frosh-Soph team ended the season with a 5 and 2 record. Consistently fine performances by George LaFleur, Barry Moore, John York, and Jack Nichols brought to the team wins over West Leyden, Willowbrook, Glenbrook, Wheaton, and St. Charles. In the Frosh-Soph Interim Conference Meet Glenbard East harriers, led by Barry Moore, who finished in first, brought to the school a first place standing. Again, in the St. Charles Invitational Meet, Barry Moore finished first and helped the team to finish in second place out of a field of 13 teams.

Coach Campbell, justly proud of his team, expects that in the succeeding years Glenbard East can look forward to good cross country teams based upon the fine record of this first team.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

The Frosh-Soph began a great tradition at Glenbard East by winding up in first place with an undefeated season. To add to this successful season was the fact that, during the whole season, they had only six points scored against them.

Tremendous spirit and a fine running attack were the keynotes of this great team. They virtually rolled over most of their opponents.

Coach Don Smith can well be proud of this team, and their record prophesies even better varsity teams to come. In future years to come, Glenbard East will be a team to reckon with.

Row 1: B. Matsinger, B. Brynjolfsson, W. Seilheimmer, B. Kennedy, B. Lehman, R. Anzak, J. Bullard, J. Lagocki, B. Jenkins, C. Young, J. Vance. Row 2: B. Melto, B. Pardee, B. Hanna, N. Hansen, F. Ponkonin, D. Harris, R. Sedwick, C. Selkow, R. Jukubek, R. Mueller, Mgr. K. Musel. Row 3. Coach Thompson, G. Vrana, B. Pederson, T. Uvodick, S. Knapp, K. Boldt, J. Morton, G. Smith, R. Leslie, B. Watson, Coach Ryan.

Coach Don Smith

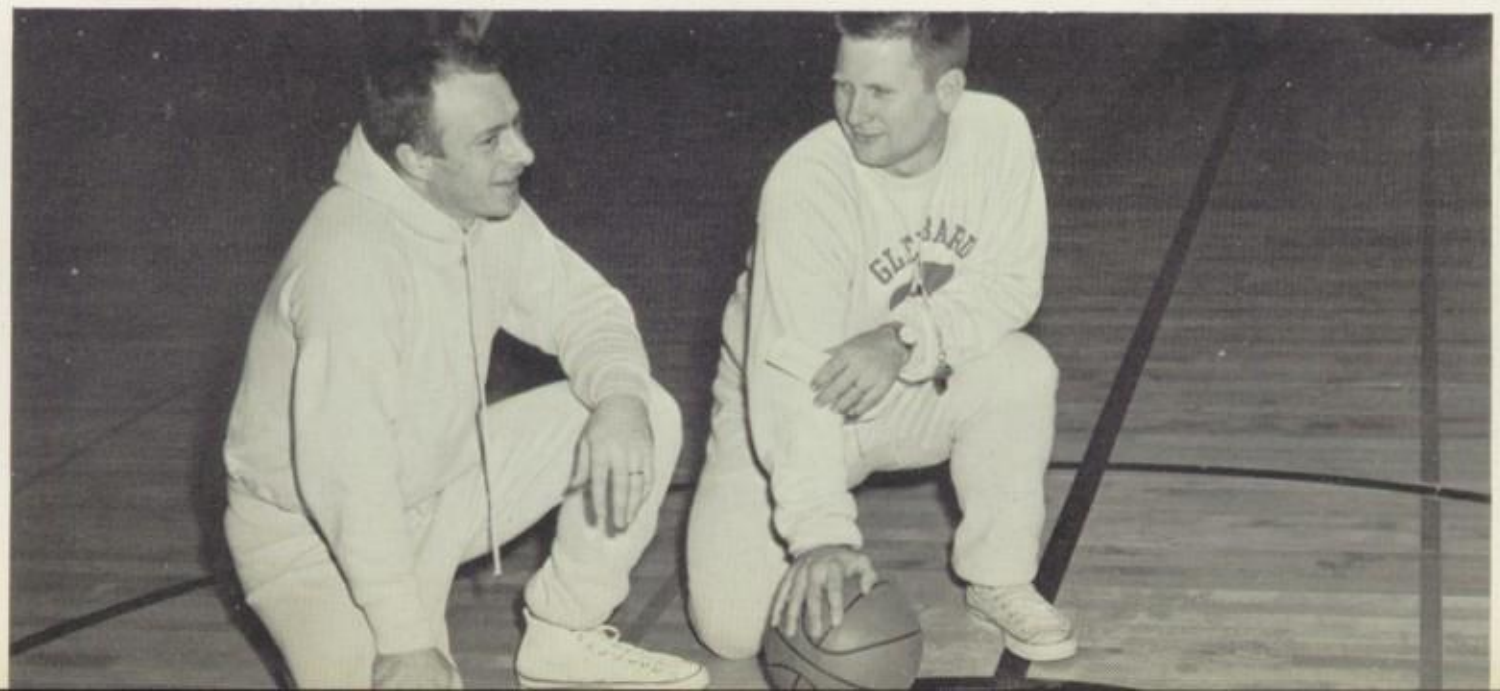
Beginning their first year of competition, the freshman team, under coaches Harry Ryan and Phil Thompson, experienced a fairly successful season with a three wins four losses and one tie record. They began the season by beating West Leyden 12 to 8, but then went on to lose to Glenbrook 13 to 7, Maine 43 to 6 and to tie West Leyden 0-0. Beginning the second half of the season by pounding Lake Park 21 to 6, they then were downed by West Proviso 39 to 0 and Glenbrook 26 to 14. Finally completing the season with a win over West Maine 18 to 0, the coaches feel that the experience gained in this first year will be of great help in improving the team's play as sophomores.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Row 1: G. LaFleur, D. Hart, M. Janes, A. Carroll, J. McLaughlin. Row 2: Mgrs. B. Matsinger, T. Marquardt, D. Ek, P. Rutter, W. Berndt, D. Smith, J. Busse, C. Crissey.

Under the direction of Coach Wayne Stevenson, the sophomore cagers began the season by defeating Lake Park three times, West Leyden twice, Waukegan twice, West Chicago, St. Procopius, and West Maine. They won ten and lost seven for their first year in competition. Although not in a regular conference, the team showed that they had what it takes, and they should be a power in any conference that they join. Next year, the coach feels that they will improve immeasurably and be excellent representatives of the school as the varsity team.

Coaches Stevenson and Astroth.



FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Completing a fairly successful season, the freshman basketball team terminated their play with seven wins and nine losses. With little or no experience, the squad still proved themselves equal to the task and rang up victories over West Leyden, West Chicago twice, Prospect, West Maine, Lake Park, and West Proviso. Working hard all the way, Coach Liz Astroth and the boys will certainly score big whenever and wherever they play, as sophomores, carry on the traditions of Glenbard East.

Row 1: P. Finney, J. Lagocki, B. Smith, M. Wieting, J. Vance, B. Pardee, D. Harris, G. Smith. Row 2: Mgr. J. Martin, D. Smith, S. Knapp, G. Vrana, W. Wipert, T. Bakos, K. Boldt, B. Melton, B. Pederson, Mgr. B. Kennedy.

SOPHOMORE WRESTLING

Row 1: J. Wagner, B. Mojonnier, T. Cass, M. Aull, C. Swimm, J. Hock, C. Usborne, D. Orr, J. Brodick, R. Bruck. Row 2: T. Radtke, J. York, P. Griffeth, C. Ankeney, A. Lipske, B. Moore, L. Bretsnyder, J. Spencer. Row 3: Coach Smith, B. Gehrs, D. Anderson, T. Leonard, J. Leveille, B. Barnet, M. Conn, T. Uvodick.

The sophomore wrestling squad started off in fine fashion by overcoming Prospect twice, West Chicago twice, and Geneva once. The team ended the year with a five wins, five losses, and one tie, that being to West Maine. Despite their relative lack of experience, the team showed great skill in their matches and won many mat decisions. Coach Smith has started the building of the team, and next year, the boys should make an equally fine varsity team.

Standing: M. Conn, J. Spencer, C. Ankeney. Down: B. Barnet, T. Uvodick.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

Row 1: B. Jenkins, R. Anzak, G. Kukla, J. Dennis, W. Barton, R. Mueller, T. Barta, R. Morgan. Row 2: Coach Smith, J. Bullard. J. Ferguson, C. Young, R. Leslie, J. Seeman, R. Sedwick, C. Selkow.

Experiencing bad luck as they began their career, the freshman grapplers look for better things to come in the future as they gain the experience that only time can bring. With one win over Geneva to their credit, the team wound up in the cellar with one win and nine losses for the season. The team was coached by Don Patterson and Don Smith, and they feel that the boys worked hard and can look to better years to come.

Transferring from old traditions to new traditions require building and planning. In order for the new traditions to endure as long as or longer than the older traditions, they must be built and planned properly with strong materials, excellent blueprints, and lasting determination. This enables the future to continue along these same lines; thusly, another strong Glenbard is built.

Dear Sue
I've enjoyed knowing you this past year, and hope I will continue to do so in years to come. Stay as sweet as you are. God bless you.
Arlene

Dear Sue,
Hope you have a great Junior year. As great a year as this year was

Sue,
I'm very glad that we got together in creating this year. We so seldom see a situation otherwise, but I hope many more that will change again.
I wish you all the luck & happiness in your last two years at East & in all you do after that.
We have known each other a long time - though in the past few years - not quite as well, and I hope we will become closer & better friends in the coming years.
Sincerely,
Carol Kaiser

Sue,
It's been a lot of fun in English this year even though I learned less than anyone in the class.
Lots of luck and I'll see you at the pool

Dear Sue,
Hi!
This makes 4 years that we've known each other! And how quickly that time has gone!
Your high school days have been very successful and often-full.
Lots of luck in the years to come.
Love,
Marilyn

Dear Sue,
Ope, we had a lot of fun in English this year, haven't we? It's a wonder we're coming out with all the goofing around. Have fun this summer & hope to see you alot next year.
Love,
Carmen Whitecotton

Sue,
Hope you have this year as fun as last. Wasn't it? Remember when we went to Chicago? I hope we can be - come sisters forever.
Until then,
Love,

Dear Sue,

Hi! Well, this year is almost over now and I'm glad! Now George won't be able to walk you to lunch for a while! (Ha Ha) I'm real glad you got that job at the pool! Don't flirt too much with Roy or Tom. Do you suppose we will carry on our little rivalry again next year? Or maybe you will have forgotten about it by then after being with so many cute boys this summer! Well, be good (?) and have fun. Best of luck in everything you do, always! Love ya!

Camilla

P.S. Have fun at camp!

Dear Sue, how's your summer been? Hope it's been better than this summer. Ha Ha) Well this year is almost over now and I'm glad! Now George won't be able to walk you to lunch for a while! Dear Sue, I'm wishing you the best of everything always. Luck always, love, Joanne

Dear Sue —

This year has really been proxperous for us, hasn't it?
Geometry class was really loads of fun; even if we didn't learn anything, I'll never forget this year, not only because of Lee-the fun we've had, but for the wonderful job you did on my campaign. Sue, you really put everything you had into it and I appreciated your whole hearted enthusiasm. Your such a wonderful person and you have such a wonderful personality, all I can say is for you to stay just the way you are and PLEASE be good. So I sure hope we have some classes together next year. If we don't, I'll complain. Well Sue, I'm so very happy we got to be such good friends and I'm positive our friendship will continue through the years. Be good (motive how I always remind you) and may God bless you.

Love ya,
Judi

P. S. We'd better keep an eye on each other at the pool
this summer.

Its been nice
having you in Geometry this year and I hope we are in the same Geometry class next year.

Dear Sue,
I'm not as good
a writer or speller
as Judi so this won't be quite as long.
Best of luck

Dear Sue,

It's been so much fun being in English class last year and this year. I hope you have fun this summer at the pool. I know you will!

Love, Chas

Dear Sue,
It really has been fun with you in school as well as last year as well. Here's hoping we're together again next year.
Best of luck

Dear Sue,
This year has really been fun. I hope we can get on some classes again next year.
Have fun this summer.
Best of luck next year and always.
Love you,

Dear Sue,
It's been a really wonderful year. And I think you're going to be one of the things we'll always remember (—like our terrific (?) track meet!) Good luck to an all-star high jumper (?!) and a wonderful girl!!!
Love ya,

Dear Sue —,

This year has been a blast! So many things have happened like the campaign and the G.A.A. dance (etc.). I don't think we could have made it through English and Spanish (especially) without each others help.

I hope we can be in some classes together next year because you're such a tremendous, terrific, fantabulous person! You really have a great personality!

Good luck always in everything you do including _____ (you know what I mean !!) I hope all your wishes come true. You deserve them! (and HIM!)

Love always, (A & H)
